P.C. :

1. This petition was called out for hearing on 15th July, 2005, when none appeared, petition was directed to be kept under caption dismissal on 21st July, 2005. Even on 21/7/2005, none appeared for petitioner. I passed conditional order requiring petitioner to take certain steps if they wanted to withdraw the petition. Even that conditional order has not been complied with, as consequence of which, bailable warrant were required to be issued to the petitioner. Bailable warrant of arrest was attempted to be served but has been returned with endorsement that concerned person has left and sold office premises in April, 2002 and his whereabouts were not known. It appears that petitioner is not interested in pursuing the present petition. I am informed by the representative of the Official Liquidator that Provisional Liquidator has been appointed in respect of the respondent company in Company Petition No.366 of 1996. In the circumstances, this petition is dismissed for non-prosecution.
